

Program Outline and Documentation Form

Name of Program: Prescribing controlled substances - UMDNJ-SNJ

Date of Program: _____

This completed form may be returned by regular mail, by fax to the CE Department at (847) 692-7082, or by email to the CE Department at ce@aana.com.

• Time Frame	• Content (Standard VI) • Faculty (Standard VIII)	• Objectives (Standard V)	• Teaching Methods (Standard VII)
Provide an hour-by-hour schedule of the program. List the length of each presentation and breaks in minutes.	List each topic to be covered in the educational session and provide a description or outline of the content to be presented. List the name, title and credentials of each presenter.	State each learner objective in terms of what the participant will be able to do after attendance at or participation in the program.	List the teaching methods.
8:00 - 8:15 Registration 8:15 - 10:15 Pharmacology of Controlled Substances (120 minutes, please see appended PPT presentation for content) 10:15 - 10:30 Break 10:30 - 12:30 State and Federal Regulations Concerning Prescriptive Authority and CRNA, APN Practice (120 minutes, please see appended PPT presentation for content) 12:30 - 13:30 Lunch 13:30 - 15:30 The Impaired Patient or Colleague (120 minutes, please see appended PPT presentation for content)	Bruce Ruck, PharmD Director of Drug Information and Professional Education New Jersey Poison Information System, Didactic Instructor UMDNJ School of Nursing & Mary Kamienski, PhD, APN-C, FAEN Assistant Dean for Graduate Studies UMDNJ School of Nursing Bruce Ruck, PharmD & Mary Kamienski, PhD, APN-C, FAEN Mary Kamienski, PhD, APN-C, FAEN & David Unkle, MSN, RN, FCCM Acute Care nurse Practitioner Didactic Instructor UMDNJ School of Nursing	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. List the classifications for controlled substances 2. List the pharmacological properties of specific controlled substances 3. Select the appropriate drug and dosage for a variety of medical indications, including acute and chronic pain management. 4. Discuss the current licensure requirements for Advanced Practice Nurses including CRNAs in New Jersey 5. Discuss the incidence, risks, symptoms and methods of screening for substance abuse in patients and/or health care providers 6. Discuss current services and resources available for impaired health care professionals 	All lectures will utilize Power Point Presentations: (appended) and open discussion, question and answer periods to augment learner understanding. Handouts will include bound editions of the presentations; plus examples of the forms used in implementing prescriptive authority and prescribing controlled substances in CRNA practice.